Slack Workspace

We use Slack to coordinate the conference and facilitate discussions for all sessions during and after the conference. Below, you will find information on how to use Slack.
We recommend joining the three main channels, as well as the session-specific channels that interest you.

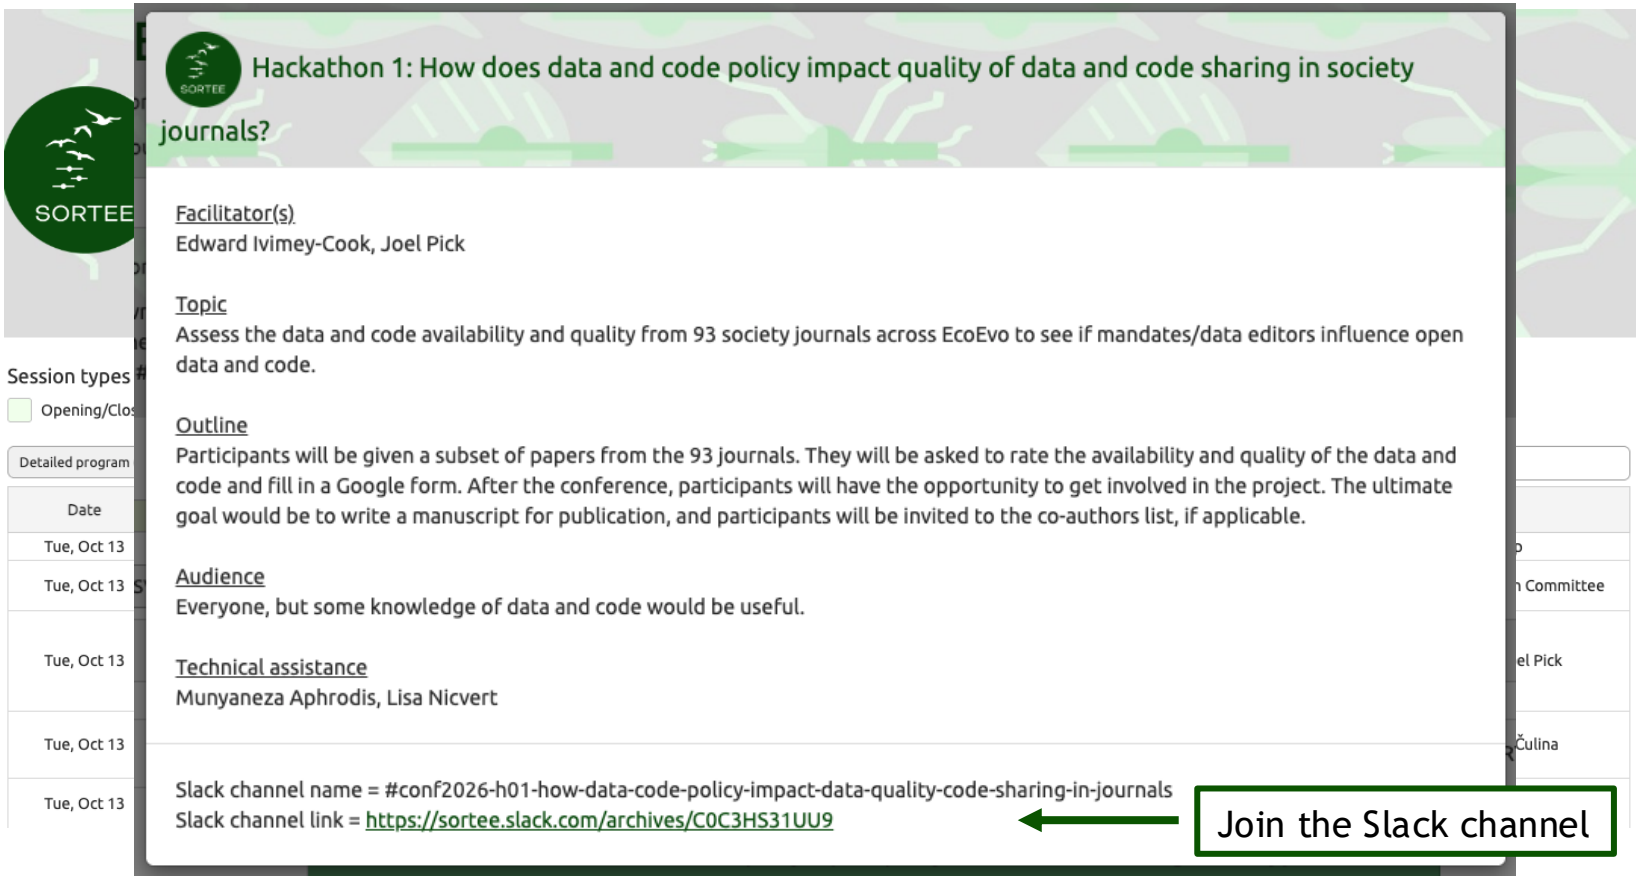

Main channels

You can either follow the links or manually add them as described in the next subsection 'Adding Channels'.

- #conference2026 – This is the main channel for conference announcements.
- #welcome – You can use this channel to introduce yourself to the group.
- #conf2026-technical-assistance – You can use this channel to ask for help with any technical issues.
